

Getting to a Successful Exit: Starting Well to End Well for Family Office investing in PE

Thursday, October 6, 2016
11:15am - 1:30pm

Registration is subject to committee approval

Please join us at this exclusive ACG Family Office event on October 6th where like-minded family offices will come together to learn from our panel of alpha family office investors, private equity investors and independent sponsors how to create successful investment partnerships to identify direct middle market control equity investment opportunities, and best practices to create long lasting value in this asset class. Topics that will be discussed at this lunch will be deal sourcing, financing, diligence, and how to drive growth and value creation, including growth through innovation, operational improvement techniques, alignment of interests/incentive compensation and the pros and cons of generational vs. defined investment period investing. We look forward to seeing you on October 6th. To enhance the benefit for all participants at this invitation only event, attendees will be pre-screened to ensure that only qualified participants are in attendance. If you have an interest in attending or would like to invite a qualified participant to attend, please contact Kara Brennan at kbrennan@acgnyc.org.
